

The Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 29

Entered at the Post Office at Janesville, Wis., as second-class matter.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN. TUESDAY, MARCH 31, 1885

Published Every Evening Except Sunday, at $6 a Year

NUMBER 19

Judicial Ticker.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court—
DAVID TAYLOR, of Fond du Lac.
For County Judge—
ADAM P. UNICHAUD, of Janesville.

There are a good many democrats who are anxious to grow up with the officers. It seems to be a pleasant way to grow.

Judge Doolittle will not get the Russian mission. Keep your ear to the telephone judge, you may yet be called to take a second seat.

Postmaster Pearson doesn't seem to go. He went to Washington recently, saw the president, visited Colonel Vilas, and returned home with a smile.

We hope Mr. Manning will not forget to show the country how he can clean out the Augean stables. He promised he would, now let him stick to his promise.

The rebel brigadier generals are reaping a pretty good harvest of offices. They are even more popular with the administration than northern brigadier generals.

"An egotistical ass, and a shallow humbug" is the term applied to Carter Harison by an old democrat of Chicago. He evidently knows Carter pretty well, judging by the terms he has used.

The old "Iron Chancellor" of the German empire will be 70 years old on Wednesday. Pomp and grandeur will mark the celebration of the day, and beside, Bismarck will receive a testimonial amounting to $250,000, raised by popular subscription.

Becky Jones is one of the famous women of her time. Because she refused to tell some of the secrets of her master, Mr. Hammersley, who died about one year ago, she was placed in jail for contempt of court. She said she would not in jail before she would disclose the secrets Hammersley had entrusted her with. She remained in jail nine months and was finally released.

Professor H. B. Anderson, formerly of the State university, has been nominated by the president to be minister resident and consul general to Denmark. The salary is $70,000 per annum. The president could not possibly have selected a gentleman better able or more suitable to represent American-Scandinavian interests abroad. Prof. Anderson is a gentleman of life-long scholarship and wide business experience, and greatly honored and respected by Scandinavians all over this country. As his literary fame has long since reached Scandinavia and been publicly recognized there, his selection will no doubt meet with general approbation at Copenhagen.

In the telegraphic report of nominations, perhaps the Janesville Gazette has got some ideas that will please its readers if it does not the editor—W. H. Doolittle.

Yes, the readers of the Gazette will doubtless be "pleased" with the names of the confederate brigadiers. President Cleveland is bringing to the front, let us see. The minister to Italy is an ex-confederate; so are the ministers to Russia and Brazil. The United States Consul at Manchester, England, just removed by President Cleveland, displaces Col. Shaw, who was one of the most gallant Union soldiers that ever went to the war from the Empire State, and a gentleman of the finest culture and ability, and yet he is displaced by a confederate from Georgia. Yes, the readers of the Gazette will be exceedingly pleased, of course.

WISCONSIN PREMIUMS.

Wisconsin has been very successful at the New Orleans exposition in receiving premiums for exhibits. The official report shows that this state took the following premiums:

Cheese..... 71 Premiums, $2,838
Butter..... 11 " 250
Fruit..... 11 " 100
Vegetables..... 11 " 100

Besides these premiums in cash, Wisconsin was also awarded three gold medals and fifteen silver medals. The total number of premiums awarded for cheese was 54, and it will be seen that this state received 71 of that number.

Iowa took 22 of the 69 premiums on butter, but Wisconsin took twice as many as any other state north of parallel 40 degrees north latitude, on fruit. These facts are very complimentary to this state. They show that the state took a livelier interest in the exposition than many of the more populous and wealthy states, and in enterprise in this direction it excelled New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois.

THE STATE PRISON.

The biennial report of the warden of the state prison has just been received. On the first of September, 1884, there were in the prison 308 convicts, and increase of about 40 over the year 1883. There is one fact shown by the report which should make the women feel proud of their sex. Out of the 410 convicts in the prison on the 1st of January 1885, there were only nine women among them.

The report also shows that the increase in the population is keeping pace with the general increase in the population of the state. There are now serving life sentences, 50 convicts in the prison, and 9 ranging from 20 to 30 years. There are 55 serving for three years, 59 for two years and 72 for one year. Ninety-eight were committed for burglary, 28 for horse stealing, 67 for larceny, 27 for murder in the first degree and 18 for robbery.

The criminal relations of the convicts has a point of interest, because it shows that unmarried men are more apt to commit crime than married men who are more or less under the refining influence of a home. Out of the 231 committed last year 150 were unmarried. There are 21 in the prison from Rock county.

PERRY H. SMITH.

One of the most noted men of Chicago was Perry H. Smith, who died in that city on Sunday. In many respects he was a remarkable character. After having studied law in New York state, he came to Wisconsin in 1845, and located at Kenosha. Shortly after he went to Milwaukee and began practicing law, but failing to get much patronage went on to Appleton, where he took root rank. At the age of 23, he was county judge of Outagamie county. Subsequently he served in the assembly and for several terms in the senate, and became an influential member of the democratic party in the state. In 1856 a special session was held for disposition of the immense land grants made by the national government to Wisconsin to aid in the construction of railroads. Mr. Smith was a member at that time, and it is said succeeded in manipulating legislation so that the "superior" grant intended to aid the building of a road from Milwaukee to Lake Superior by way of Fond du Lac, Oshkosh, Appleton and Green Bay was transferred to a newly-organized company which as was intended, was soon consolidated with the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac railroad company. Mr. Smith became vice-president of the company and when, some time later, it was consolidated with the Chicago & North-western he took the position with the latter. He was virtually the actual manager of the Northwestern and shaped its policy. While living at Appleton he made investments in land and lead and iron mines, and those, together with his railroad connections, made him wealthy. In 1860, he removed to Chicago, where he lived in the most costly and elegant mansion in the city. His vast wealth was made to contribute to the magnificence of that home, by drawing from Europe some of the most costly and rare paintings and sculpture.

About three years ago, his mind showed signs of weakening very much, and finally his reason was so much deranged that he was taken to the hospital for the insane at Madison where he remained for some time. While he improved somewhat, he never fully recovered. The immediate cause of his death was congestion of the liver. He was 57 years of age, and was worth about $5,000,000.

constitutional prohibition, it will not be because all its strongest friends sought this method from the first, but because the existing parties finally made undeniably true to the charge, that no party not specially called into being for that purpose, can be trusted to enact or enforce the necessary prohibitory laws. So it will be in Iowa, and so it will be in all the states.

L. P. FROST.
Janesville, March 30, 1885.

THE WAY GROWS DARK.

FOR THE SHADOW OF DEATH HOVERS OVER IT.

The "Old Commander" Feels Resists Approaching Dissolution—The End Close at Hand, and the Sands of Life Nearly Spent.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Gen. Grant's condition during Monday did not improve. On the contrary, it was such as to cause the greatest alarm and apprehension. All visitors were excluded, and the family watched anxiously each change, hoping for the best but fearing the worst. The physician said the case was so critical that the patient might not live twenty-four hours, and the general belief was that he had but a few hours to live.

The general had but few callers during Monday afternoon. At 4:30 p. m. Dr. Douglass issued the following bulletin:

Gen. Grant is free from pain and has been taking food at regular intervals, and is as well as usual. He is not strong and is showing more feebleness of body.

Mr. Remora, the Mexican minister, called at 6 o'clock and remained only a few minutes. On leaving he said that no one excepting the members of his family, his physician, and the Rev. Dr. Newman were now allowed to see the general. In his opinion the general was growing rapidly weaker, and he might live a week, or he might live only a few hours.

At 7 p. m. Gen. Grant was very quiet. His temperature and pulse were about normal. At that hour he was more silent than usual. He gives the impression of being weaker, but this is not indicated by his pulse. He is unable to lie down and sits up in an easy chair. Among the callers during the evening were Senator Leland Stanford, California; Mr. Howard Henderson and Mr. Harrison, counsel for "Buck" Grant in the Fish-Ward suit. Between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening the following message was sent from Gen. Grant's residence:

To His Excellency, Governor, 1739 H. Street, Washington, D. C.:—I am feeling better than I was yesterday, but I am still weak. It is understood that Gen. Grant has expressed a desire that Gen. Arthur B. Hanson, who was his military secretary during the latter part of the war, and more recently his literary assistant, shall act as his literary executor.

At 10 o'clock the general was apparently sleeping in his easy chair and did not appear to be suffering any pain.

At midnight Gen. Grant was said to be freer from pain, and appeared to be better than at any time during the day. After leaving his room, he was at 12:30 appeared to be resting easily, and was weak.

The Day in the Sick Room.

NEW YORK, March 31.—There is much mystery about the sudden trouble of Saturday night. Dr. Douglass had left the sufferer at 10 o'clock apparently in good condition and ready to sleep. At midnight he was apparently sleeping, and at 12:30 appeared to be resting easily, and was weak.

After breakfast the members of the family went up to see the general. They tried to allay the grief which consumed them. He said he felt very weak and in great need of sleep. Dr. Douglass told him he would rest better if he would lie down, and the general consented to be put to bed. He was too weak to walk, and Harrison and Col. Fred lifted him and carried him to his room. He seemed easier when, though he did not sleep, and the doctor did not care to give him more narcotics. There was a hush in the house, and the inmates moved about on tiptoe. The children were kept in their room, so that their voices might not distract their grandfather. From the street their pretty faces could be seen pressed against the window-panes.

It is not known to do Gen. Grant good, but it is known to do him harm. He was propped up on the pillows and felt very slowly. He was better after that, and Dr. Douglass thought it safe to leave the house in order to look after some private patients who were seriously ill. Rev. Dr. J. P. Newman called and was shown up to the general's room. Even his hopefulness underwent a shock when he saw the wan face of the sufferer. Within two days Gen. Grant has changed much for the worse. The convalescence under his much larger, the pleurisy in the throat has spread, and his voice has become weak and low. Forcible orders were given that no one else should be allowed to see him. Visitors were not at the door and were told that under no circumstances could they see the general. Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), who is to publish Gen. Grant's book, called and questioned Harrison at the door. Mr. J. M. Jackson, who said he had come from Lyons, was also turned away.

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

Gen. Grant has expressed himself as being entirely in his physician's hands, and said that he would do whatever was suggested by them. Nothing whatever is kept from him regarding his condition, and he was informed of its seriousness and probable termination. He received the statement that there were indications of a speedy recovery, and he expressed a hope that he would be able to do something for the country. He has known for some time that the disease was sure to kill, and has been ready at any time to go. A member of the Grant household, in conversation with a reporter, said: "Gen. Grant never doubted that he was dying. He knows the progress of the disease as well as his physicians, and he awaits the final summons with the staidly for which he is noted. Perhaps his only regret is that he cannot be allowed more time in order to satisfy himself about his book. He expects to die, and has no fears. He thinks that after his death he will be better appreciated than he is now, and that his name will live on in the hearts of the people, which none of the boldest had done."

THE WAY GROWS DARK.

FOR THE SHADOW OF DEATH HOVERS OVER IT.

The "Old Commander" Feels Resists Approaching Dissolution—The End Close at Hand, and the Sands of Life Nearly Spent.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Gen. Grant's condition during Monday did not improve. On the contrary, it was such as to cause the greatest alarm and apprehension. All visitors were excluded, and the family watched anxiously each change, hoping for the best but fearing the worst. The physician said the case was so critical that the patient might not live twenty-four hours, and the general belief was that he had but a few hours to live.

The general had but few callers during Monday afternoon. At 4:30 p. m. Dr. Douglass issued the following bulletin:

Gen. Grant is free from pain and has been taking food at regular intervals, and is as well as usual. He is not strong and is showing more feebleness of body.

Mr. Remora, the Mexican minister, called at 6 o'clock and remained only a few minutes. On leaving he said that no one excepting the members of his family, his physician, and the Rev. Dr. Newman were now allowed to see the general. In his opinion the general was growing rapidly weaker, and he might live a week, or he might live only a few hours.

At 7 p. m. Gen. Grant was very quiet. His temperature and pulse were about normal. At that hour he was more silent than usual. He gives the impression of being weaker, but this is not indicated by his pulse. He is unable to lie down and sits up in an easy chair. Among the callers during the evening were Senator Leland Stanford, California; Mr. Howard Henderson and Mr. Harrison, counsel for "Buck" Grant in the Fish-Ward suit. Between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening the following message was sent from Gen. Grant's residence:

To His Excellency, Governor, 1739 H. Street, Washington, D. C.:—I am feeling better than I was yesterday, but I am still weak. It is understood that Gen. Grant has expressed a desire that Gen. Arthur B. Hanson, who was his military secretary during the latter part of the war, and more recently his literary assistant, shall act as his literary executor.

At 10 o'clock the general was apparently sleeping in his easy chair and did not appear to be suffering any pain.

At midnight Gen. Grant was said to be freer from pain, and appeared to be better than at any time during the day. After leaving his room, he was at 12:30 appeared to be resting easily, and was weak.

The Day in the Sick Room.

NEW YORK, March 31.—There is much mystery about the sudden trouble of Saturday night. Dr. Douglass had left the sufferer at 10 o'clock apparently in good condition and ready to sleep. At midnight he was apparently sleeping, and at 12:30 appeared to be resting easily, and was weak.

After breakfast the members of the family went up to see the general. They tried to allay the grief which consumed them. He said he felt very weak and in great need of sleep. Dr. Douglass told him he would rest better if he would lie down, and the general consented to be put to bed. He was too weak to walk, and Harrison and Col. Fred lifted him and carried him to his room. He seemed easier when, though he did not sleep, and the doctor did not care to give him more narcotics. There was a hush in the house, and the inmates moved about on tiptoe. The children were kept in their room, so that their voices might not distract their grandfather. From the street their pretty faces could be seen pressed against the window-panes.

It is not known to do Gen. Grant good, but it is known to do him harm. He was propped up on the pillows and felt very slowly. He was better after that, and Dr. Douglass thought it safe to leave the house in order to look after some private patients who were seriously ill. Rev. Dr. J. P. Newman called and was shown up to the general's room. Even his hopefulness underwent a shock when he saw the wan face of the sufferer. Within two days Gen. Grant has changed much for the worse. The convalescence under his much larger, the pleurisy in the throat has spread, and his voice has become weak and low. Forcible orders were given that no one else should be allowed to see him. Visitors were not at the door and were told that under no circumstances could they see the general. Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), who is to publish Gen. Grant's book, called and questioned Harrison at the door. Mr. J. M. Jackson, who said he had come from Lyons, was also turned away.

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

Gen. Grant has expressed himself as being entirely in his physician's hands, and said that he would do whatever was suggested by them. Nothing whatever is kept from him regarding his condition, and he was informed of its seriousness and probable termination. He received the statement that there were indications of a speedy recovery, and he expressed a hope that he would be able to do something for the country. He has known for some time that the disease was sure to kill, and has been ready at any time to go. A member of the Grant household, in conversation with a reporter, said: "Gen. Grant never doubted that he was dying. He knows the progress of the disease as well as his physicians, and he awaits the final summons with the staidly for which he is noted. Perhaps his only regret is that he cannot be allowed more time in order to satisfy himself about his book. He expects to die, and has no fears. He thinks that after his death he will be better appreciated than he is now, and that his name will live on in the hearts of the people, which none of the boldest had done."

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

Gen. Grant has expressed himself as being entirely in his physician's hands, and said that he would do whatever was suggested by them. Nothing whatever is kept from him regarding his condition, and he was informed of its seriousness and probable termination. He received the statement that there were indications of a speedy recovery, and he expressed a hope that he would be able to do something for the country. He has known for some time that the disease was sure to kill, and has been ready at any time to go. A member of the Grant household, in conversation with a reporter, said: "Gen. Grant never doubted that he was dying. He knows the progress of the disease as well as his physicians, and he awaits the final summons with the staidly for which he is noted. Perhaps his only regret is that he cannot be allowed more time in order to satisfy himself about his book. He expects to die, and has no fears. He thinks that after his death he will be better appreciated than he is now, and that his name will live on in the hearts of the people, which none of the boldest had done."

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

Gen. Grant has expressed himself as being entirely in his physician's hands, and said that he would do whatever was suggested by them. Nothing whatever is kept from him regarding his condition, and he was informed of its seriousness and probable termination. He received the statement that there were indications of a speedy recovery, and he expressed a hope that he would be able to do something for the country. He has known for some time that the disease was sure to kill, and has been ready at any time to go. A member of the Grant household, in conversation with a reporter, said: "Gen. Grant never doubted that he was dying. He knows the progress of the disease as well as his physicians, and he awaits the final summons with the staidly for which he is noted. Perhaps his only regret is that he cannot be allowed more time in order to satisfy himself about his book. He expects to die, and has no fears. He thinks that after his death he will be better appreciated than he is now, and that his name will live on in the hearts of the people, which none of the boldest had done."

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

Gen. Grant has expressed himself as being entirely in his physician's hands, and said that he would do whatever was suggested by them. Nothing whatever is kept from him regarding his condition, and he was informed of its seriousness and probable termination. He received the statement that there were indications of a speedy recovery, and he expressed a hope that he would be able to do something for the country. He has known for some time that the disease was sure to kill, and has been ready at any time to go. A member of the Grant household, in conversation with a reporter, said: "Gen. Grant never doubted that he was dying. He knows the progress of the disease as well as his physicians, and he awaits the final summons with the staidly for which he is noted. Perhaps his only regret is that he cannot be allowed more time in order to satisfy himself about his book. He expects to die, and has no fears. He thinks that after his death he will be better appreciated than he is now, and that his name will live on in the hearts of the people, which none of the boldest had done."

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

Gen. Grant has expressed himself as being entirely in his physician's hands, and said that he would do whatever was suggested by them. Nothing whatever is kept from him regarding his condition, and he was informed of its seriousness and probable termination. He received the statement that there were indications of a speedy recovery, and he expressed a hope that he would be able to do something for the country. He has known for some time that the disease was sure to kill, and has been ready at any time to go. A member of the Grant household, in conversation with a reporter, said: "Gen. Grant never doubted that he was dying. He knows the progress of the disease as well as his physicians, and he awaits the final summons with the staidly for which he is noted. Perhaps his only regret is that he cannot be allowed more time in order to satisfy himself about his book. He expects to die, and has no fears. He thinks that after his death he will be better appreciated than he is now, and that his name will live on in the hearts of the people, which none of the boldest had done."

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

Gen. Grant has expressed himself as being entirely in his physician's hands, and said that he would do whatever was suggested by them. Nothing whatever is kept from him regarding his condition, and he was informed of its seriousness and probable termination. He received the statement that there were indications of a speedy recovery, and he expressed a hope that he would be able to do something for the country. He has known for some time that the disease was sure to kill, and has been ready at any time to go. A member of the Grant household, in conversation with a reporter, said: "Gen. Grant never doubted that he was dying. He knows the progress of the disease as well as his physicians, and he awaits the final summons with the staidly for which he is noted. Perhaps his only regret is that he cannot be allowed more time in order to satisfy himself about his book. He expects to die, and has no fears. He thinks that after his death he will be better appreciated than he is now, and that his name will live on in the hearts of the people, which none of the boldest had done."

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

Gen. Grant has expressed himself as being entirely in his physician's hands, and said that he would do whatever was suggested by them. Nothing whatever is kept from him regarding his condition, and he was informed of its seriousness and probable termination. He received the statement that there were indications of a speedy recovery, and he expressed a hope that he would be able to do something for the country. He has known for some time that the disease was sure to kill, and has been ready at any time to go. A member of the Grant household, in conversation with a reporter, said: "Gen. Grant never doubted that he was dying. He knows the progress of the disease as well as his physicians, and he awaits the final summons with the staidly for which he is noted. Perhaps his only regret is that he cannot be allowed more time in order to satisfy himself about his book. He expects to die, and has no fears. He thinks that after his death he will be better appreciated than he is now, and that his name will live on in the hearts of the people, which none of the boldest had done."

Dr. Douglass was asked Monday night if the end would come during the night, and answered: "I think not, but the general is now passing through a stage incident to the disease, and, frankly, I cannot tell if the end will come to-night. The general is growing weaker and weaker." These words were spoken without reserve and carried conviction to the hearers, which none of the boldest had done.

nounced in this city Monday that Gen. Grant had died at 12:40. Immediately there was a practical cessation of business, and the deepest sensation prevailed. Gen. Grant's death was a great blow to the country, and it was a great loss to the world. The general's death was a great blow to the country, and it was a great loss to the world. The general's death was a great blow to the country, and it was a great loss to the world.

Sympathy for the Sick Soldier.

Boston, March 31.—The house of representatives Monday unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house do issue a call for the members of the house to be present at the funeral of Gen. Grant, to be held at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, April 2, at the residence of the general.

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

P. W. I. BLOOD

&lt;

THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY MARCH 31.

Notice to Subscribers.

Subscribers to THE DAILY GAZETTE who do not receive their paper regularly, will confer a favor by reporting omissions promptly at THE GAZETTE PRINTING HOUSE.

LOCAL MATTERS.

If you want an elegant hat, call at Mrs. Woodstock's. If you want a cheap hat, Mrs. Woodstock's is the place to find it.

For Sale—The residence of M. S. Pritchard, on Milton avenue.

J. M. Bostwick & Sons are more than slapping off spring carpets. Their elegant line should be inspected by all contemplating purchases, as they carry the only complete stock in the city. See and believe. Not fiction but facts. Indeed, head it in need, of now carpets.

To Rent—Part or whole of a furnished house to first class tenants. Address P. O. box 767.

Great sale of Oriental lace and Hosiery at Mrs. Woodstock's, Wednesday, April 1st.

Wanted—A good sewing machine operator at Domestic office. A good chance for one willing to work. Call Saturday.

Beekot, the corn exchange square shoemaker makes boots and shoes to order on short notice. No factory work in the shop. Visible patches that will stick. All kinds of rubber goods repaired. All work warranted first class. Call and see to be convinced.

See the Great Carnival hat at Mrs. Woodstock's.

To Rent—My residence in the third ward, to a trustworthy, and prompt tenant. Address me through Janesville postoffice, or call on C. E. Bowles, real estate agent, Jackson's block.

J. S. Bliss.

Wanted—A good, competent girl, to do general house-work. German or American preferred. Call at the office of Dr. E. E. Loomis.

The best place in the city for a pair of fine boots or shoes made to order is at London Bros. They have always made a specialty of fine work which has given universal satisfaction. They also give personal attention to repairing and have the reputation of pleasing their patrons.

Trimmed hats from $1.00 up, at Mrs. Woodstock's.

You can buy winter garments of all kinds at less than the cost of material, as they must be closed out at Archie Reid's.

For Sale—House and barn, 3 1/2 acres of choice land in third ward, for sale cheap. Inquire of Denning & Murray, No. 10 Main street.

We are selling everybody carpets and guarantee satisfaction to all who may visit us. Our assortment is immense, the largest that was ever shown in the city. Prices were never so low before. They have struck rock bottom. An early examination of our large display will be beneficial to every purchaser.

J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

For Rent—7 1/2 acres of good tobacco land, and a good house and lot in the city. Also a 60 acre farm at Koshkonong Lake, so situated as to make a pleasant summer resort.

H. H. Blanchard.

To Rent—10 room house vacant April 1st.

To Rent—7 room house vacant May 1st.

Both in 4th ward corner Linn and North streets. Good well and centers. Apply to L. R. Trent, office H. A. Doty Box Co. North Main street.

Finest garments, silk garments, and fine cloth garments at half price at Archie Reid's.

It will cost you nothing to call at Sander and Camille's second hand store, No. 65 North Main street, and see their stock of goods, consisting of everything needed for housekeeping. Some nice milk safes and a parlor set cheap.

You can get at Archie Reid's, sample hosiery for ladies, gents and children at wholesale price, over 900 styles to select from, in cotton, silk and silk. See them. They are bargains.

Sample corsets in all makes at one half price at Archie Reid's.

The largest line of fancy shirts, and ties to match, at Foots & Wilcox's.

Dr. E. W. Boardman, formerly house surgeon to Mahanood hospital, Chicago, has located in Janesville and will of office with Dr. O. C. Sutherland, No. 3, Franklin street.

A lot, located in the most desirable part of the first ward, with new-house, will be sold at a sacrifice. Apply a once to C. E. Bowles.

P. W. Blood, P. & E.

Shirts bags cheapest at King's book store next to postoffice.

Wanted—A competent girl to do general house-work. Good wage.

Mrs. S. H. Robinson.

65 South Main Street.

P. W. Blood, P. & E.

A few choice residence lots for sale by C. E. Bowles.

Outcream for chapped hands and face, sold by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Custom work done on short notice at Foots & Wilcox. Men tailors, make first class work; our shop is full of them, and they are all at it. Come and see us.

Buffalo robes, ice robes and horse blankets at reduced prices at Jas. A. Fathers, Main street.

Outcream for chapped hands and face, sold by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Finest line of Easter and birthday cards at King's bookstore, next to post-office.

Give your orders for gasoline to the Yellow Oil wagon. Gasoline 74 deodorized for stoves.

$10,000 to loan in sums to suit, and at low rate.

C. E. Bowles.

WARD CAUCUSES.

FIRST WARD.

The Republicans of the first ward will meet in caucus at the West side engine house, on Thursday evening, April 2d, 1885, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., to elect delegates to the city convention, and to nominate ward officers.

SECOND WARD.

The Republicans of the second ward will meet in caucus at the engine house, on Thursday evening, April 2d, 1885, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., to elect delegates to the city convention, and to nominate ward officers.

THIRD WARD.

The Republicans of the third ward will meet in caucus at the engine house, on Thursday evening, April 2d, 1885, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., to elect delegates to the city convention, and to nominate ward officers.

FOURTH WARD.

The Republicans of the fourth ward will meet in caucus at the engine house, on Thursday evening, April 2d, 1885, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., to elect delegates to the city convention, and to nominate ward officers.

FIFTH WARD.

The Republicans of the fifth ward will meet in caucus at the engine house, on Thursday evening, April 2d, 1885, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., to elect delegates to the city convention, and to nominate ward officers.

CITY CONVENTION.

The Republican convention for the nomination of candidates for city officers, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it, will be held at the common council room in said city, on Friday the 3d day of April, 1885, at 10 o'clock in the afternoon. Each ward will be entitled to delegates in proportion to its population.

First ward, four; second ward, five; third ward, four; fourth ward, six; fifth ward, two.

By order of city committee.

J. C. METCALFE, Chm.

A. McDONALD.

C. L. VALENTINE.

CHAS. S. ATWOOD.

J. C. WILLY.

Republican City Committee.

Dated March 27, 1885.

RELATIONS.

—Uncle Tom's Cabin this evening.

—Dr. S. S. Judd returned home from New Orleans last evening.

—Mr. C. M. Conant is confined to his home with an attack of pneumonia.

—Janesville City Lodge No. 90, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening.

—Miss Mary Hyde is confined to her home on West Bluff street, with erysipelas.

—Hon. Frank Leland, of Lake Geneva was a friendly caller at the Gazette office this afternoon.

—Read list of prizes offered for the Hat and Bonnet contest Thursday night, April 2d. Everybody will be there.

—Hattie Harvey captured the house at the rink last evening. See her in her great shadow dance under a calcium light this evening.

—The Ladies' Society of All Souls church, will meet at the church to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 6 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

—A bill of divorce has been granted by the Milwaukee circuit court in the case of Hill against Hill. The parties are well known in this city.

—General Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias occupy Castle hall this evening. Members are requested to bring swords, belts and fatigue caps for special work.

—Don't forget the hat and bonnet contest at the rink this week Thursday evening. See list of six prizes offered in another column. Admission will be only 15 cents.

—Arthur Ball, champion brick and croquet player of New York, appears at the rink Saturday evening, April 4th. He is the highest priced skating attraction on the road.

—The prohibitionists will hold their city and ward conventions to-morrow evening at the city hall, for the purpose of nominating a city and ward ticket for the spring election.

—Owing to the fact that the Guards had advertised a grand ball for Wednesday evening, April 3d, the rink managers have changed the date for their masquerade to Friday evening April 10th.

—Louis Hemmings, of the merchant tailoring establishment of W. C. Holmes & Son, was thrown out of a buggy yesterday (accidentally) and broke his wrist, which will lay him up for some days.

—Chautauque circle Friday afternoon at 7:15. Quotations from Shakespeare and questions in March Chautauque. Bring your "Songs" and "Vesper Service." April book at Sutherland's. Call and secure it.

—An interesting assault and battery case was abruptly ended this afternoon in the municipal court. As soon as the parties took a look at the jury they concluded to open negotiations for a settlement, and at the suggestion of friends concluded to lay the matter before a referee.

—The Master cards are splendid specimens of art this year, especially those manufactured by Prang, and R. W. King has an assortment from which any one can select something of the choicest designs. His stock is first class—beautiful and cheap—so that all can afford to buy liberally.

—Messrs. Foots & Wilcox, the popular clothiers of West Milwaukee street, are just now making a special sale of gentlemen's neckwear and fancy-bordered linen handkerchiefs, of which they have a large assortment in stock. You can find anything in the genre of furnishing goods line at this establishment, and at the lowest prices.

—Mason & Morgan's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. appear at Myers' opera house this evening, and is the only recognized company in America playing this great drama, carrying special scenery and everything to make the play a grand success. No other company in America plays a dramatization of this celebrated story that is approved and endorsed by the authors. Don't fail to see it.

—The Woman's Foreign Mission circle of Court Street church, will meet Wednesday, April 1st, at half past three in the afternoon with Rev. Mrs. Wilcox, North High street, first ward. Rev. Mr. Wheeler will be present and give an account of "Founding a Mission." Tea will be served at six o'clock. It is hoped that many friends will be present to see and hear Mr. Wheeler.

THE MERRILL & HUNTER WORKS COMPANY.

The Merrill & Hunter works company, of Beloit, filed articles of association with the secretary of state yesterday, the capital stock being $40,000, divided into 400 shares. The object is to sell, lease or dispose of the property purchased at public auction by J. D. Rexford of R. J. Burdick, as assignee of the Merrill & Hunter Iron works, on Jan. 7, 1885. The incorporators are J. D. Rexford, N. B. Van Slyke, M. R. Doyan, F. H. Starkweather and W. M. Birney.

—We understand that the K-C no risk company have purchased the trick elephant "Dodo," of the Arabian brothers, and will hereafter have the management of the animal, making engagements for performances at the different skating rinks throughout the city. We did not learn the amount paid for the beast, but understand quite a large sum was required to induce the brothers to part with their pet. The animal is now quartered in the Young America block, undergoing a course of daily training, preparatory to taking the road.

—Valuable packages have been left at the Gazette office for the following gentlemen, who are requested to call or send a representative and claim the same: Dr. C. L. Martin, J. C. Metcalf, S. C. Cobb, Stanley B. Smith, A. C. Bates, Ed. F. Carpenter, Judge L. F. Patten, W. F. Williams, J. B. Doe, John Winans, A. A. Jackson, O. H. Fetters, A. W. Baldwin, W. T. Vankirk, J. D. King, Omas. Atwood, M. M. Phelps, James Sutherland, Judge John B. Bennett, Dr. S. S. Judd, H. A. Patterson, J. W. Sala, Charles Lee, Wm. Bager, A. B. Sheldon, Penner Kimball, Dr. H. Palmer, A. P. Lovejoy, and A. O. Wilson.

—He walked into the municipal court this afternoon with a sort-of-Tre-bone whipped appearance, and after taking a seat in the jury box, inquired if this was the justice office. "No, sir," replied the good-natured judge, "this is the municipal court; what do you want?" "I want a warrant," I am from the town of Fulton; I wrote a letter to another man's wife and told her she was a liar; and her husband caught me in the field and gave me an awful flogging." The judge told him he ought not to write letters to married women, and before he could give him a warrant he would have to investigate the matter. The fellow insisted that he only told the married woman that she was a liar—and that he had not been making love to her. The fellow left, intending to bring in some of the neighbors to assist him in getting a warrant.

—A good sized audience assembled at the Riverside rink last evening, the attraction being Miss Hattie Harvey, of Boston, the champion lady skater of New England. At nine o'clock the floor was cleared and Miss Harvey made her first appearance before the Janesville public. As she gracefully glided up on the floor, in a free and easy manner, quickly making the circuit, the audience was at once convinced that she was all that had been claimed. Miss Harvey is only seventeen years old, and has only been practicing about two years, yet she has visited nearly all the leading rinks in the country from Boston to Grand Forks, Dakota. She rapidly and audaciously executed the most difficult movements, and exhibited that ease and grace which won her much applause. She is unquestionably the best professional that has visited this city. This evening will be her last appearance, when she will give her special shadow dance, by the aid of a calcium light. This alone is worth the price of admission, and will not fail to draw a large audience. Last evening the Catholic corset band occupied the orchestra, and rendered appropriate music for the occasion.

Great Discovery.

Mr. Wm. Thomas, of Newton, Ia., says: "My wife has been seriously affected with a cough for twenty-five years, and this spring more severely than ever before. She had used many remedies without relief, and being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery, did so, with most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved her very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured her. She has not had so good health for thirty years."

Trial bottles free at F. Sherer & Co's drug store. Large size $1.00.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 39 degrees above zero. Clear, with west wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 51 degrees above zero. Clear with west wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 42 and 53 degrees above zero.

Thousands Say No.

Mr. T. W. Atkins, Grand Kan., writes: "I never hesitate to recommend Dr. Electric Bitters to my customers, they give entire satisfaction and are rapid sellers." Electric Bitters are the purest and best medicine known and will positively cure kidney and liver complaints. Early use of blood and regulate the bowels. No family can afford to be without them. They will save hundreds of dollars in doctor's bills every year. Sold at 50 cents a bottle by F. Sherer & Co.

Prohibition Mass Convention.

A mass convention of the prohibitionists will be held at the common council room, on Wednesday evening, at 7:30 April 1st, 1885, for the purpose of nominating city and ward tickets for this spring. Every prohibitionist in the city is invited to come and assist in making the nominations.

WM. A. LAWRENCE, GEO. HILL, JOHN GOWDY, J. M. ALLEN, JAMES HANSEN, WM. STERN.

Committee.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that all persons are positively forbidden to trust anyone on my account, without a written order from me.

J. P. GAGE.

W. E. church, Saturday evening, and took advantage of the occasion to present them with an elegant gold lined cake basket and silver butter dish.

A. A. Brown is dangerously ill, with inflammation of the bowels, at the present writing.

Robins, bluebirds and meadow larks indicate that the coming of spring is near, but the weather is not so kind. The city milder to hesitatingly linger in her northward journey.

Rev. Mr. Nelson, of Beloit, assisted the local ministers last week in the union revival meetings, Friday Father Emerson and wife, of Grand Grove, came over, and during their stay added much to the interest of the meetings and their sweet music; the meetings closed Sunday night.

W. H. Lane has received all the machinery for his mill, and is busily engaged in putting the same in position. He expects to begin grinding wheat some time next month.

J. D. Anderson did a good grain business last week, chiefly in barley.

Welling Clarke's home last week for a few days' visit with his family.

Mr. E. H. Bartlett was dangerously ill last week, but is convalescent now.

Dr. Wm. Pierce, of Omaha, visited his brother, James Pierce, Esq., last week. Dr. P. Standard had a Florida black-bird shoot here Friday. In the first match of five birds, Godfrey won 10 birds; Stone and Stannard, 2d money; Doid, 3d money. Second match—10 birds. First money, Doid and Godfrey; 2d money, P. Standard; 3d money, T. Haight. Third match—10 birds. First money, Godfrey, Decker and Sherer; 2d money, Pierce; 3d money, F. P. Stannard. Fourth match—10 birds. First money, Godfrey and Decker; 2d money, Sherer; 3d money, F. P. Stannard.

The rifle for the hammerless gun owned by F. P. Stannard took place during the afternoon and there were forty three shots fired. The gun was owned by F. P. Stannard, and is valued at $85.00 and cost Mr. Scott $1.50.

The graded school closed Friday for a vacation of two weeks. Miss Markham was obliged to go home a day or two before the term closed having an attack of diphtheria.

Mrs. W. H. Weaver has been quite ill with a throat difficulty.

Magnets Will Have to Prove It.

Boston, March 31.—Edward W. Jenkins, president of the common council, who was expelled from the Democratic city committee on the other evening for forming a combination with the Republicans of the council, has said Patrick Maguire, of the governor's council, for $25,000 damages for the expulsion, that Jenkins charged $4,000 for retaining an appointment for a city office.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, March 30. The Aene Grain and Provision Co., in its market circular of this evening gives the following range of prices on the board of trade today: Wheat—May, opened 81 1/2, closed 80 3/4; June, opened 81 1/2, closed 80 3/4; Corn—May, opened 41 1/2, closed 41 1/4; June, opened 41 1/2, closed 41 1/4; Pork—May, opened 11 1/2, closed 11 1/4; June, opened 11 1/2, closed 11 1/4; Lard—May, opened 10 1/2, closed 10 1/4; June, opened 10 1/2, closed 10 1/4.

Market Weather.

The following is the range of temperature for the month of March, as recorded in the Gazette from day to day, at the hours noted. The coldest day was the 17th, when the thermometer indicated 4 degrees below zero at 7 a. m. and 15 above at 1 p. m. The warmest day was the 31st, the thermometer being 39 degrees above at 7 a. m. and at 1 p. m. 54 degrees above zero.

	7 A. M.	1 P. M.	7 P. M.
March 1	42	48	45
" 2	45	52	48
" 3	48	55	50
" 4	50	58	52
" 5	52	60	54
" 6	55	62	56
" 7	58	65	58
" 8	60	68	60
" 9	62	70	62
" 10	65	72	65
" 11	68	75	68
" 12	70	78	70
" 13	72	80	72
" 14	75	82	75
" 15	78	85	78
" 16	80	88	80
" 17	4	15	10
" 18	5	16	11
" 19	6	17	12
" 20	7	18	13
" 21	8	19	14
" 22	9	20	15
" 23	10	21	16
" 24	11	22	17
" 25	12	23	18
" 26	13	24	19
" 27	14	25	20
" 28	15	26	21
" 29	16	27	22
" 30	17	28	23
" 31	18	29	24

The Duty of State Legislatures.

Legislation in every state should regulate the sale and use of the many poisons resorted to by women in their desperation to obtain a beautiful complexion. There exists in Dr. Hatter's Iron Tonic every remedy to accomplish this object without injuring health or endangering life.

Prentice & Evenson will refund the price paid if Acker's Blood Elixir does not relieve any skin or blood disorder. Know, but thoroughly tested discovery.

Card to Housekeeper.

People ask us how we can afford to give away a brass hammered placque clock to purchasers of our Peerless Baking Powder. In reply we say we cannot afford it. For the present we lose money but as long as consumers will be galled into buying Alum Powder, because it is cheap, and they get a worthless crumb, or cheap hot throw in, we are compelled to adopt some novel way of calling attention to the merits of our Peerless Baking Powder which is absolutely pure cream tartar and soda. Any physician will tell you the strongest qualities of alum will destroy the lining of the stomach. We do not intend to give away these art clocks very long, and at the same time we wish it understood, that this gift of an art clock is no lottery. Every person gets value for value received in buying the powder, and in addition to value for their confidence in our goods, one out of every 48 purchasers is presented with the clock, which will bestir more artists at suspended from the wall by a brass chain. Our Peerless Baking Powder was once the leading powder in Janesville, and if you desire health in the food instead of disease, it will be a gain.

Yours Respectfully,

BELL, CONRAD & CO.

Prentice & Evenson distinctly state that Acker's English remedy, has done more for constipated consumers than ask for circular. An entirely new medicine, guaranteed.

MITCHELL.

—Deacon Edge and Mrs. D. Crandall were married Thursday morning, at the bride's residence in this village. Rev. E. M. Dunn, officiating. The ceremony was a quiet affair and the new made man and wife took the 10:20 a. m. train for Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Deane have the very best wishes and hearty congratulations of everybody. May their future be prosperous and happy.

—W. H. Webb has moved to Clinton where he will run a restaurant.

—L. D. Clarke, of Ashaway, Rhode Island, arrived in town last week and will spend the summer here in the employ of his father, G. D. Clarke.

—The firm of Cory & Cory dissolved partnership on the 1st instant. Mr. Cory will move to Eagle where he will engage in the mercantile business, Mr. Cory will continue in business here at the old stand.

—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cory made them a surprise party at the

LOCAL MATTERS.

80 acre farm for $4 000.

C. E. BOWLES.

Outcream for chapped hands and face, sold by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Plated napkin rings, 25 cents and up. Extension hanging lamps, $2.50 and up. Stand lamps, 25 cents and up. New designs in colored glass globes, at Wheelock's.

New assortment of combs, tooth brushes, toilet soaps and face powders, at Palmer & Stevens' druggists.

Outcream for chapped hands and face sold by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Wanted—A girl for general housework. Apply at New York store.

Outcream for chapped hands and face sold by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Anyone wishing a spring overcoat, will do well to call on Foots & Wilcox. A large and choice lot to select from as was ever shown in the city.

New spring overcoats are now arriving at the clothing store of Fitcher & Zeigler.

Houses for Sale—In the city, at prices ranging from $800 to $2,500.

Outcream for chapped hands and face sold by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, Janesville, Wis.

YOUNG MEN—READ THIS.

The Young Men's Club, of Marshall, Mich., has a large stock of the best quality of clothing for young men, and is now offering a special sale of the same. The stock includes suits, shirts, ties, and all kinds of clothing. Also for rent, a large and comfortable house, with all modern conveniences. Write to the club for a catalogue and terms.

Don't miss this chance to get a good suit of clothing at a low price. Write to the Young Men's Club, Marshall, Mich., for a catalogue and terms.

Don't miss this chance to get a good suit of clothing at a low price. Write to the Young Men's Club, Marshall, Mich., for a catalogue and terms.

Don't miss this chance to get a good suit of clothing at a low price. Write to the Young Men's Club, Marshall, Mich., for a catalogue and terms.

Don't miss this chance to get a good suit of clothing at a low price. Write to the Young Men's Club, Marshall, Mich., for a catalogue and terms.